An Executive Introduction To Russia For Irish Businesses, Oct.24-28, 2011

Pushkin (pop. 100,000) and 15 minutes drive from Pulkova International Airport; St.Petersburg was the favored town of the Tsars from the 1700s. With its legacy of magnificent palaces and grand parks it is truly “the Versailles of Russia”. Pushkin today is an excellent base from which to get a feel for this wonderful continent of 150 million prospective consumers for your goods and services in the company of your hosts; the directors and staff at Pushkin Chamber.

Irish businesses and organisations wishing to explore and enter the dynamic Russian market need independent, credible and trustworthy facilitators because doing business in Russia takes time, requires local knowledge, contacts and understanding, openness and a willingness to meet potential Russian partners in a spirit of mutual respect and benefit – there are no quick hits to doing business there!
